NOT VOTING—2

Corzine	Rockefeller
---------	-------------

The amendment (No. 1732) was agreed to.

Mr. NELSON of Nebraska. I move to reconsider the vote.

Mr. BENNETT. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Utah.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. President, on Thursday of last week, when Senator KOHL and I laid down the bill, I made the point that while there are no direct emergency aid funds in the bill, there are funds for many of the programs that would aid the victims of Hurricane Katrina and, frankly, programs they badly need.

To point out some of the increases over the fiscal year 2005 level that have impact on Katrina that are in this bill: $16.6 million for food defense activities at FDA; $36.2 million for food safety activities at USDA; nearly $250 million in loan authorizations for rural housing, including housing repair; $1.1 billion in rural utility loan authorizations for rural water and electric loans; $22 million for the Women, Infants and Children feeding program; and $5.6 billion in food stamps. These are all issues that affect the victims of Hurricane Katrina, and every State and every citizen will benefit from the programs in this bill. So I hope we can move forward with it in an expeditious fashion.

The USDA and FDA, the principal agencies funded in this bill, are working under very difficult conditions to address the needs in the hurricane-affected areas. FDA has had to transfer 50 employees from their regional office in New Orleans to Nashville, and USDA has had to relocate several hundred employees to keep its programs going.

So I hope we can do our best to effectively and quickly get this bill moving. I urge those who have amendments to the bill to come to the floor and help us with this bill.

We have one amendment which I understand has been cleared, and the Senator from Colorado has that amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Colorado is recognized.

AMENDMENT NO. 1737, AS MODIFIED

Mr. ALLARD. Mr. President, I send to the desk amendment No. 1737, as modified.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the amendment.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from Colorado [Mr. ALLARD] proposes an amendment numbered 1737, as modified.

Mr. ALLARD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that reading of the amendment be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment is as follows:

On page 93, line 9, before the period at the end insert the following: "Provided further, That the Secretary, through the Agricultural Research Service, or successor, may lease approximately 40 acres of land at the Central Plains Experiment Station, Nunn, Colorado, to the Board of Governors of the Colorado State University System, for its Shortgrass Steppe Biological Field Station, on such terms and conditions as the Secretary deems in the public interest: Provided further, That the Secretary understands that it is the intent of the University to construct research and educational buildings on the subject acreage and to conduct agricultural research and educational activities in these buildings: Provided further, That as consideration for a lease, the Secretary may accept the benefits of mutual cooperative research to be conducted by the Colorado State University and the Government at the Shortgrass Steppe Biological Field Station: Provided further, That the term of any lease shall be for no more than 20 years, but a lease may be renewed at the option of the Secretary on such terms and conditions as the Secretary deems in the public interest".

Mr. ALLARD. Mr. President, very briefly, what this amendment does is it just allows Colorado State University to lease land from the Agricultural Research Service. It is not a controversial provision.

I ask unanimous consent it be adopted.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there further debate on the amendment?

Is there objection to the unanimous consent request?

Without objection, it is so ordered. The amendment is agreed to.

The amendment (No. 1737), as modified, was agreed to.

Mr. BENNETT. I move to reconsider the vote with respect to the Allard amendment.

Mr. ALLARD. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

RECESS

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. President, I know of no other amendments available to us. Unless someone wishes to speak in morning business between now and the time we routinely break for the policy lunches, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in recess until 2:15 p.m.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 12:10 p.m., recessed until 2:15 p.m. and reassembled when called to order by the Presiding Officer (Mr. SUNUNU).

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Democratic leader is recognized.

NOMINATION OF JOHN ROBERTS TO BE CHIEF JUSTICE

Mr. REID. Mr. President, one of the Senate's most important constitutional responsibilities is to provide advice and consent with respect to a President's nominations. The task is especially important when the nomination is an individual to be Chief Justice of the United States. No one doubts John Roberts is an excellent lawyer and a very affable person. But at the end of this process, frankly, I have too many unanswered questions about the nominee to justify a vote confirming him to this enormously important lifetime position.

The stakes for the American people could not be higher. The retirement of Justice O'Connor and the death of Chief Justice Rehnquist have left the Supreme Court in a period of transition. On key issues affecting the rights and freedoms of Americans, the Court is closely divided. If confirmed, Judge Roberts, who is only 50 years old, will likely serve as Chief Justice and leader of the third branch of the Federal Government for many decades.

The legal authority we will hand to Judge Roberts by this confirmation vote is awesome. We should only vote to confirm this nominee if we are absolutely positive that he is the right person to hold that authority. For me, this is a very close question, but I must resolve my doubts in favor of the American people whose rights would be in jeopardy if John Roberts turns out to be the wrong person for this job.

Some say the President is entitled to deference from the Senate in nominating individuals to high office. I agree that deference is appropriate in the case of executive branch nominees such as Cabinet officers. With some important exceptions, the President may generally choose his own advisers. In contrast, the President is not entitled to much deference in staffing the third branch of Government, the judiciary. The Constitution envisions that the President and the Senate will work together to appoint and confirm Federal judges. This is a shared constitutional duty. The Senate's role in screening judicial candidates is especially important in the case of Supreme Court nominees because the Supreme Court has assumed such a large role in resolving fundamental disputes in our civic life. Any nominee for the Supreme Court bears the burden of persuading the Senate and the American people that he or she deserves a confirmation to a lifetime seat on that Court.

First, I start by observing that John Roberts has been a thoughtful, mainstream judge on the DC Circuit Court of Appeals, but he has only been a member of that court for 2 years and has not confronted many cutting-edge constitutional issues, if any. As a result, we cannot rely on his current judicial service to determine what kind of a Supreme Court Justice he would be.

I was very impressed with Judge Roberts when I first met him in my office soon after he was nominated, but several factors caused me to reassess my initial view. Most notably, I was disturbed by the memos that surfaced
